IMO 1999

Said Landaverde

2026

1 Problem 1

Let 0 be the centroid of S, obtained by averaging the coordinates of its points. For any distinct points $A, B \in S$, the perpendicular bisector of AB passes through 0.